EXHIBIT F Biographies of Miles Wilkin and Scott Zeiger

Miles C. Wilkin
COO, Executive Vice President
Clear Channel Entertainment

Miles Wilkin is Executive Vice President of Clear Channel Entertainment. The $ 1.7 billion company is the world's leading producer and promoter of live entertainment events, as well as the world's largest owner and operator of event venues, with a network of over 130 – including most major amphitheatres in the U.S. Clear Channel Entertainment is a subsidiary of Clear Channel Worldwide, a global leader in out-of-home advertising, with radio and television stations and outdoor displays in over 40 countries.

Previously Wilkin was Chairman, Theatrical Worldwide and Chairman and CEO, Europe of Clear Channel Entertainment.

Under Mr. Wilkins's direction, Clear Channel Entertainment has an active production roster in the United Kingdom and North America, including the Broadway productions of The Producers, Hairspray and Chicago.

As the President and founder of Pace Theatrical Group, Wilkin led the company's development into one of the largest theatrical organizations in North America, From 1992-1996, Wilkin served as COO of PACE's former parent company.

Upon receiving his degree in Business Administration from the university of Florida, Wilkin joined the University's administrative staff. He was appointed by the mayor of Orlando, Fla. To oversee the city's theaters, arenas, stadium and convention center.

Wilkin is a member of the Executive Committee of the League of American Theatres and Producers, a Board Member of Story Theatre, a not-for-profit children's theatre and a member of the University of Florida President's Council.

Scott Zeiger
CEO, Theatrical, North America
Clear Channel Entertainment

Scott Zeiger is CEO of Clear Channel Entertainments Theatrical Group, a leading presenter and producer of Broadway theatrical productions in the United States and Canada, and part of Clear Channel Entertainment, the worlds largest producer and presenter of live entertainment.

Under the direction of Mr. Zeiger and Clear Channel Entertainment Theatrical, Clear Channel has produced such critically-acclaimed Broadway shows as Mel Brooks The Producers, Hairspray, Sweet Smell of Success, Suessical, Fosse, Chicago, Jekyll & Hyde, The Who's Tommy and Ragtime as well as touring productions of Cabaret, Cinderella, Fosse and Sunset Boulevard, among many others. Mr. Zeiger has also overseen the production of live family and variety shows including David Copperfield, Scooby-doo Live, and Blues Clues.

In his current position, Mr. Zeiger oversees the sale of Clear Channel Entertainments theatrical productions throughout the country, including subscription sales in 56 North American markets (nearly 600 weeks of touring shows a year). He is also responsible for Clear Channel Entertainments theatrical real estate division, which owns or operates 14 theaters across the country, including the Ford Center for the Performing Arts in New York.

Mr. Zeiger's duties also include publishing ShowPeople Magazine, and overseeing the operations of Clear Channel Entertainments theatrical merchandising division.

Prior to joining PACE Theatrical Group in 1983 (PACE was acquired by SFX in 1998 and ultimately merged with Clear Channel Communications in 2000), Mr. Zeiger was a regional marketing director for Ringling Brothers/Barnum & Bailey Combined Shows, Inc., promoting various circus dates as well as Walt Disney Ice Shows.

Mr. Zeiger earned his bachelor's degree in Business Administration from the University of Florida, where he first produced concerts and special events.

He serves on the Executive Committee for the League of American Theatres and Producers, as well as the Tony Awards Management Committee.